BLACK HISTORY

Friday: Interracial marriage in the United States was banned in 1664 and not overturned until 1967.

ANTI- RACISM LEGAL PROJECT

The Black Community Resource Centre is a resource-based organization that offers "In The Know", a series of legal workshops designed to familiarize youth with their legal rights and responsibilities. The BCRC also seeks to increase Black youth and other minority community individual's literacy on the criminal justice system and their capacity to confront racism, particularly within the current climate with issues surrounding the policing of Black and racialized individuals across Quebec and the resurgence of the Black Live Matter movement. As part of the project BCRC will host 10 interactive workshops. The focus of the workshop will be on the rights and responsibilities as outlined in the Youth Protection Act. If interested in participating in this project, please email Ms. Di Pietro at sdipietro@emsb.qc.ca
