Additional Information / Specifications

The primary aim of the course is to provide the student with an understanding of those events of the 20th century that have shaped the current century. A very important secondary aim is to introduce the student to the type of work required in a cegep-level social science course. The student will be responsible for note-taking and additional reading, among other things.

Late work will be penalised at 20% per day. Work is due at the beginning of the period on the due date, or will be subject to penalty.

The online platform for this class is MS-Teams. Students will abide by the provisions of the code of conduct for online classes.

The June exam is a school exam.

The policy on plagiarism found in the RWA Evaluation Policy and the Student Agenda will be rigorously enforced.

The use of electronic devices is forbidden without the teacher’s permission. Possession of electronic devices during evaluations is forbidden and violations may lead to a mark of 0%.

Remediation schedule

Day 1 at 12:30-1pm and Day 5 at 3-3:50pm in room 311

Due to Covid-19, it is possible that changes may need to be made to the course outline. Changes will be communicated as soon as possible. Any changes will be made with a goal of maximizing student success.
