Additional Information / Specifications

Message to students and parents:

Behaviour: Appropriate behaviour in class is a requirement for academic success. Classroom procedures and rules will be communicated to the students in class. School rules as outlined in the Code of Conduct also apply.

Deadlines: Students are responsible for making up their work and for informing themselves of assignments, tests or dates of importance after an absence. Work submitted late will be penalised 20% per day except under exceptional circumstances. In this case a note from the student’s parents/guardians may be required.

Neither extra-curricular activities, whether in school or not, nor holiday travel will be considered acceptable reasons for submitting late work or missing evaluations. Students who will be missing school due to such activities will be required to submit their work/sit tests in advance of their absence.

Quality of language: A penalty of 10% may be applied to written work that is poorly written. Misspelling of proper nouns, historical figures and events will lead to marks being docked.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism will not be tolerated. Students may not loan their work to other students. A mark of 0% may be awarded to students caught plagiarising.

Communication: Course materials will be posted on MS Teams. Marks will be posted on the Mozaik Portal.
